Family Dispute Resolution

The Toowoomba Family Relationship Centre (FRC) supports families to focus on their children's needs during and/or after separation.

The FRC assists separated parents and families to negotiate and agree on workable parenting arrangements outside of the court system.

Our team respects cultural differences and beliefs, and works supportively with diverse relationships and family arrangements to provide positive outcomes for children and families.

Tailoring our service to your individual needs

We understand that separation can present unique challenges for individuals and families and without adequate support, conflict may take hold. Our team carefully considers the needs of each individual and offers assistance options that best respond to those unique needs.

Our team also provides additional and specialist support to First Nations people and people from CALD (Culturally and Linguistically Diverse) communities.
